

The Cheshire Agricultural Society Data Protection Policy

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) came into force on 25 May 2018. The Cheshire Agricultural Society is committed to protecting your data. This brief policy sets out the basis on which any personal data that you provide to us, or that we may receive from others about you, will be processed. Data may be held electronically or in paper format and will only be held for a reasonable length of time.

The Cheshire Agricultural Society recognises its position as both controller and processor of your data with regards to the Royal Cheshire County Show. The Society will only use your data and share your data when it has a legitimate reason to do so. You may provide data to us when joining the Cheshire Agricultural Society, booking a trade stand or entering a competition held at the Royal Cheshire County Show. Examples of bodies we may need to share your data with include, but are not limited to; caterers who need to be aware of special dietary requirements; Breed Societies to verify entries; external contractors such as marquee and electricity suppliers; and for safety purposes your emergency contact details may be shared with relevant bodies.

The Cheshire Agricultural Society recognises that you have rights surrounding the data we hold. Individuals may contact the Society's Data Protection Officer (DPO) and exercise your rights to; be informed about the data we hold; have access to the data we hold; have your data rectified; be forgotten and so forth. Should you make a data request The Society will endeavour to respond within the statutory period.

The Cheshire Agricultural Society undertake to keep your data safe and will notify you and the Information Commissioners Office (ICO) should it become aware of any data breach, within the legal time limit of 72 hours. If you are not satisfied at any time with the actions of The Cheshire Agricultural Society you have the right to contact the ICO at ico.org.uk or via their helpline on 0303 123 1113.
